

2020 CUMMINGS & LOCKWOOD ANNUAL UPDATE

December 31, 2020

To Our Clients and Friends:

I hope this finds you and your families well.

2020 was an especially challenging period. An unprecedented COVID-19 pandemic, a world-wide health crisis, associated disruptions to businesses and the global economy, and a bitterly divided election created stress and uncertainty throughout the year.

Thankfully, Cummings & Lockwood and its clients seem to have persevered. Our firm remained open and operational throughout 2020. A strong technology platform, remote working, staged staffing, great focus and teamwork all contributed.

We are grateful that, despite the many challenges of 2020, our commitment to clients remained steadfast. Indeed, many Cumming & Lockwood Partners had their busiest years.

Throughout our 111-year history, we have tried to serve one simple objective: our client's best interests. As a result, we have become known as one of the country's premier law firms devoted to private clients and their businesses.

We are fortunate to have one of the largest and most well-respected trusts and estates practices in the United States, along with various elite commercial practices in the areas of corporate representation, banking and lending, litigation and commercial real estate.

Our lawyers are highly regarded in their respective fields. Many are nationally recognized for their legal skills, judgment and professional ethics by numerous professional rating organizations, leading peer review--based associations, and the judiciary.

We are not, nor do we have ambitions to be, the largest law firm measured by total lawyers or offices. Our goal is to be the pre-eminent firm for private clients, institutions and related businesses on their most important legal matters, most significant business transactions, and most critical disputes.

We are pleased to share with you Cummings & Lockwood's 2020 Firm-wide Annual Update. It highlights some of the work we have performed over the past twelve months, various professional recognitions we have received, and a number of charitable and pro bono initiatives we have been privileged to support.

Our Partners recognize these results would not be possible without our clients. We appreciate your trust and support.

With thanks and best wishes for a healthy New Year.

Sincerely,

Jonathan B. Mills
Chairman & Managing Director

Chambers and Partners High Net Worth Guide Recognizes Cummings & Lockwood

In addition, for the fifth year in a row, the Firm's Connecticut offices were ranked in Tier 1 in Private Wealth Law by Chambers & Partners in their 2020 Chambers High Net Worth Guide. The Guide, which is based on objective and independent research, recognizes the world's leading high net worth advisers. Seven of the Firm's trusts and estates partners were also recognized by Chambers as notable practitioners, including Douglas Olin, Heather Rhoades, Howard Tuthill, Kelley Galica Peck, Laura Beck, Michael Kaelin and Paul Bourdeau.

Quoting from Chambers' editorial: "I think of Cummings & Lockwood as the top law firm in the state of Connecticut," says a local interviewee, adding that "trusts and estates is very important to them and is a big part of their business." The firm has trusts and estates attorneys in its Greenwich, West Hartford and Stamford offices.

The firm's private clients group wins particular praise for the quality of its drafting. One source says that "the Cummings & Lockwood legal professionals not only designed complex legal plans but also have experience in implementing the strategies they recommend," and another reports that "their investment in their proprietary document drafting programme results in documents that are easy for the client to understand, thorough, flexible and on the cutting edge of planning issues." The team is also praised for the lack of "legalese language" in their plans compared with those of other attorneys, "so a layman could read and understand the content" of these documents. "They are the best firm that I deal with, by far," a source says, explaining that "they are very forward-looking; they draft their own documents and incorporate changes in the law very quickly; they integrate the estate tax, gift tax, generation-skipping transfers and income tax into their planning; and they can really focus on what matters to the client."

- advisors from the scientific research, medical, and corporate world. Through their experienced professional staff, they work closely with their clients and support groups to empower them to take charge of their disease instead of feeling like a victim of it.

Professional, Civic and Community Affairs

A number of our Partners and Associates are also active in professional and civic affairs, which include local, state and national bar association committees, as well as municipal councils and commissions.
