

ADVANCE HEALTH CARE DIRECTIVES IN CONNECTICUT

Authors: Rachel B.G. Sherman, Daniel P. Fitzgerald, and Katherine Cotter Gent

This Practical Law Guide addresses an advance health care directive that allows an individual residing in Connecticut to express personal health care instructions regarding life-sustaining treatments and end-of-life care, to authorize an agent (Health Care Representative) to make health care decisions on the individual's behalf, to appoint a conservator of the person in case of incapacity, and to make an anatomical gift.

View as PDF