

ELIZABETH A. FALKOFF HAS BEEN ACCEPTED INTO THE NEW ENGLAND FELLOWS INSTITUTE OF THE AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRUST AND ESTATE COUNSEL

January 3, 2024

Elizabeth (“Betsy”) A. Falkoff, a Principal in Cummings & Lockwood’s Private Clients Group and based in the firm’s Stamford office, has been accepted into Class II of the New England Fellows Institute of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC).

Betsy, who is a Greenwich resident, earned her J.D., magna cum laude, from Quinnipiac University School of Law and her B.A. in Political Science, cum laude, from the University of Connecticut. She has over 10 years of experience practicing trusts and estates law at Cummings & Lockwood LLC, and is admitted to the Connecticut and New York bars..

The New England Fellows Institute was created by ACTEC Fellows to develop the profession’s future leaders in trusts and estates law through a series of in-depth educational presentations led by outstanding subject matter experts in each field from across the U.S. The institute includes six sessions for lawyers who were nominated by an ACTEC Fellow and selected through a competitive application process. The program begins in February 2024 and concludes in September 2024.

About ACTEC

The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel is a national organization of lawyers elected to membership by demonstrating the highest level of integrity, commitment to the profession, competence and experience as trust and estate counselors.
