

LIVING WILLS AND APPOINTMENT OF HEALTH CARE REPRESENTATIVES IN CONNECTICUT

Authors: Rachel B.G. Sherman, Daniel P. Fitzgerald, and Katherine Cotter Gent

This Practical Law Guide discusses a living will and appointment of health care representative that allows an individual residing in Connecticut to express personal health care instructions regarding life-sustaining treatments and end-of-life care, and to authorize an agent (health care representative), to make health care decisions on the individual's behalf. This Standard Document contains integrated notes and drafting tips.
